

“Let the Redeemed of the Lord say so”

Psm. 107

*Song of Praise and thanksgiving of the people of God.
Psm. 107.*

Vr. 1-3 Give Thanks... Why?

- He is Good.
- He is loving.
- He has redeemed us from our adversary.
- He has gathered His people unto Himself.

Psm. 107.

Vr. 4-32 Four Examples of those in Trouble.

- Vr. 4-5 Those who wander. Lost, thirsty and hungry.
- Vr. 10-12 Those who rebelled against God's word.
- Vr. 17-18 Those who are fools because they reject the way of the Lord.
- Vr. 23-27 Those who are trapped in the storms of life.

How did these find help in their time of trouble?

- Vr. 6, Vr. 13, Vr. 19, Vr. 28.... All say the same thing.

"They Cried out to the Lord in their trouble."

Psm.107

Vr. 33-38 He Changes things.

Two main principles.

- #1 God can change that which is good into that which is bad When Wickedness rules and reigns.
- #2 God can change that which is desolate, desperate, and diminished into that which is fruitful, flourishing, and fabulous for His FAITHFUL!

Psm.107

Vr. 39-40

A Prince without a kingdom.

The greatness of mankind can be but one moment away from total destruction and grief.

Vr. 41-42

The High and lifted up.

The upright will be “lifted up “in their affliction and be glad.

Vr. 43

Who Is Wise?

- One day you will stand before that God and give an account for your life. Eternity is to long to get it wrong.
- The only thing that will matter in that moment is not how religious you were but how real you were in your relationship with Jesus.
