

I have a Christmas Nativity.
It reminds me of some simple truths.

The Christmas Nativity scene and its characters serve as a great reminder.

Joseph God's plan for our lives might not be what we dreamed or imagined, but He is faithful to those who will follow wherever He leads them.

Mary God can and will do amazing things through the life of a willing, submissive servant.

Shepherds The Lowly are invited into the presence of the Most High.

Wisemen The wise are still called to worship and to give abundantly to the King of kings and Lord of Lords.

Animals All of creation awaited and exalted the birth of the Savior.

Jesus is the center of it all.

- Luk 2:10 "Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all the people; :11 for today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the "
"This will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."
- Rev. 7:17 for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes."
- When you look at that nativity in your home, what will it remind you of?
- Will those truths get packed away with your nativity when Christmas is over?
- Maybe, just maybe we should leave that nativity up all year?
